IN UNEQUAL FIGHT

Himalayan Bear's Foolish Combat With Stone.

Like Too Many Members of the Human Race, the Animal Is a Victim of His Unconquerable Obstinacy.

Most wild animals, it appears, are stupid as well as greedy and obstinate. But for sheer brainless obstinacy in the face of opposition there is, the best authorities contend, no animal like the Himalayan bear. If he finds a thing in his way he will always push it aside if he can, even though it would be easier to go around the obstacle.

The wily natives of India have observed that trait in his character and from it have contrived a trap to catch him. They select a tree with a suitable horizontal bough. At a point on the bough about ten or twelve feet from the fork they fasten a bait likely to attract the bear—honey, for example, or goat's flesh. Then from another bough above that one they suspend a heavy block of stone. The rope is so fastened to the upper bough that the stone hangs between the bait and the fork of the tree.

The bear scents the bait from a distance, comes to the tree, sees the food on the bough and climbs up the tree.
Reaching the bough, he walks along it to get at the bait. But suddenly he notices the obstacle in his way and pushes it aside with his paw. The stone swings out of the way for a second; then it swings back and hits the bear on the paw. With a growl of irritation the bear pushes it aside more violently. The stone swings away again; then it returns with greater force and hits the bear on the chest.

With a snarl of rage the bear gives the stone a tremendous thrust and sends it up into the air in a wide curve. Then down comes the stone in a similar curve and hits the bear a thumping whack on the ribs.

Most animals would desist after that third blow; not so the bear. He is now in a perfectly mad rage, and a bear is a good borer. He hits out with his paws, right and left and sends the stone hurtling forward in a still wider curve. Then, after a few seconds, the stone comes back and hits the bear a terrific "uppercut" on the jaw.

But alas! the bear never went to school and learned the law of gravity.
Every blow he hits the stone is returned tenfold. And as the stone has no brains to be knocked out, it is the bear that gets knocked out.

Then the wily natives hiding below rush in with a net and throw it quickly over him. And that is how any "zoo" or menagerie gets its Himalayan bear.

Co-operative Law Library.

An interesting experiment in library co-operation is being worked out in the Long Beach public library, Long Beach, Cal. Forty or 50 attorneys of the city of Long Beach have sent law books from their private libraries to the public library for the purpose of forming a co-operative law library.
Those contributing books in this way are entitled to take books from the cooperative library, keeping them for a period of five days, and the general public is allowed to consult the books at the library. The books are marked, "Loaned to the Long Beach Public Library." Some of the attorneys joining in the plan have each contributed as many as 200 books to the co-operative law library. It would seem that this idea might be worked out successfully in other lines of endeavor, thus making the resources found in books available to the largest possible number of people.

Nickel Money.

Nickels—which are really copper-nickel, being a mixture of the two metals—were first coined in this country to give encouragement to nickel mining. Important deposits having been found in Pennsylvania.

Since then many other uses for the metal have been found. But at the present time 85 per cent of the world's supply of nickel is derived from the mines of the Sudbury district, in Canada, where the reserves of ore are enormous. Of the balance, France produces the bulk, contributing 11 per cent.

It has been suggested that Great Britain, practically controlling as she does the world's nickel, might switch from cheapened gold and make the white metal the basis of her currency.
—Philadelphia Ledger.

"Let's Pretend."

Everybody has things to put up with.
There are sure to be ups and downs, and even days when everything seems so out of tune that it can never be right again. To make home a happy place is the housewife's business, but unless she can at least appear happy herself she is not likely to make a success of it. This will be much easier if she has had her early training in the game of "let's pretend." Very few of us make the most of all the chances for happiness that come to us. It's a difficult thing to do. But we can all try to do so, and that is half the battle!—Washington Post.

Our Flour and Wheat Exports.

Between July 1 and January 9, the United States exported $2,083,000 bushels of wheat and 8,773,000 barrels of flour, a total equal to 121,980, 000 bushels of wheat.

Multiplying Talk.

"What's this duplex system of telegraphing?"
"You can send four messages at once."
"Gosh! Wouldn't my wife like to have a device of that kind attached to her larynx?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

BARBADOS

In the beautiful, tropical twilight of Bridgetown, Barbados—the most easterly of the Windward Islands—a squadron of American warships swing leisurely at anchor. The beach is lined with dusky natives, who gaze with luminous eyes at the great dread-naught and the sailors looting about the decks.

A number of small boats put off from the shore, at intervals, filled with natives, each holding some musical instrument in his hands. The boats dot the water about the ships and the sailors listen with keen appreciation to the weird strains of music coming from the banjos. The natives are showing their appreciation of the sailors' presence by serenading them at the close of day.

LAKE WEIR

Lake Weir, July 21.—Mr. and Mrs.
Carson Bradford and two children of Nashville, Tenn., arrived Sunday evening to spend their vacation at their cottage on the lake.

Mr. Charles Martin of Winter Garden is spending a week or ten days with his brother, Dr. Earl Martin at Oklawaha.

Little Mary Bradford ran a fish hook in her finger, which was a very painful operation, cutting it out, but the little miss was very brave and is over the worst of the pain and nervous excitement caused by the long delay of going to Ocala to have it attended to on account of the local M. D. being absent.

Mrs. Jennie Blocher and her little grandson, Bobbie Chambers of Con-nersville, Ind., arrived yesterday to spend several months on the lake, where they have usually spent their summers in Mrs. Kate Clements' cottage.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs.
John Mann are glad to welcome them back to the lake after an absence of several weeks in Ocala, where Mr.
Mann went for treatment.

Mr. Brookline of Cornell, has purchased a small cottage from Mr.
Robert Marshall and with his family is occupying the same for the summer months.

Elliot and Henry Connor, who have spent some time in Detroit, Mich., have returned home, but their sister, Miss Mary Connor, who went to Detroit to spend the summer with her brothers, has accepted a fine position there and will remain for the coming year, much to the regret of her host of friends and admirers all over the state, where she has taught music for so many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Marshall of Gainesville are spending a few days with friends on the lake, who are always delighted to see them back.
Since they have taken up their residence elsewhere they have been sorely missed by the many friends they have made while living here.

OAK VALE

Oak Vale, July 20.—Mr. Raymond Robinson and children of Williston, came out Saturday to see his sister, Mrs. R. H. Reddick. His mother, who has been with her daughter for two weeks, returned with him.

Miss Hattie Akin of St. Catherine and Gainesville and Miss Gertrude Shutt of Gainesville came Saturday morning to spend the week end with Miss Lonnie Clancy and Mrs. W. F.
Kwag, Miss Akin driving her car. They returned Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. A. Vinson of Lady Lake and daughter, Mrs. Allan Boring and children of Lakeland, came over Saturday morning to visit the C. S. Mims family, Mrs. Boring driving the car.
They returned home Monday. They found very bad roads west of Flemington.

We were grieved to hear of the death of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phin-ney's nine-months-old boy. He died in Jacksonville Monday. They had taken him there ten days ago for an opera-

A coin is pitched by a sailor from the deck of one of the ships, striking the water near one of the boats. Three sleek and sinewy figures dive in the direction of the sinking coin. In the clear water their forms can be seen as they go down. First one dejected nelger comes to the surface, then another, and finally the last of the three, grinning with happiness, with a 25-cent piece tightly held in his teeth.

Another quarter is pitched from the deck and again the natives dive. The game goes on until darkness envelopes the bay and only the outline of the beach with silhouetted figures of sailors strolling along can be seen.

To the sailors who are accustomed to beautiful scenery and strange sights, Barbados always holds a peculiar charm. The vendors carrying baskets of delicious fruit on their heads and the antiquated horse-cars lumbering along the cobbled streets are indeed picturesque sights. On either side of the streets giant palm trees grow, and a few blocks from the center of the business district coconuts and bananas can be had for the picking. Great stretches of sand beaches encircle the island, inviting the lover of bathing to come in for a swim.

The principal industry of the island is sugar-cane growing, there being a number of mills for manufacturing and refining the cane. These mills are owned by British interests which employ the natives at a maximum wage of two shillings (48 cents) a day. Living expenses are very small, there being no high rents as the tropical climate will permit outdoor sleeping the year round.

SUMMERFIELD

Summerfield, July 20.—The Hart Lumber Company continues to enlarge its plant and promises to be one of the most up-to-date plants in the state.

Miss Isabel Davis of Ocala was a week-end guest at the home of her uncle, Mr. C. P. Davis last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards of Thonoto-sassa are spending this week with their daughter, Mrs. J. C. Ledbetter and family.

The chicken pillow given by the young people on the city square last Friday night was much enjoyed by all who attended.

Messrs. Norton P. Davis, D. W.
Davis and A. E. Gerig, all business men of Ocala were in our city Monday hustling up insurance.

Miss Lillie Brown, who has been attending the summer session of the Gainesville normal, returned home last week.

Miss Blanche Moody will leave the last of this week for Jacksonville, where she will visit her sister, Miss Alma Moody.

Dr. W. A. McKenzie, mayor of Leesburg, was a business visitor here Monday.

Mr. W. M. Wilson and wife of Ocala were visitors here last Sunday.

Mr. L. A. Gable, representing the Delco Light Co., is here putting in one of his up-to-date electric light and water plants for Mr. A. M. Blackman. He is also equipping the Mayo-Lyles store with electric fans.

Upon interviewing Mr. R. L. Clyburn after the recounting of the votes for county commissioner in district No. 3 Monday morning, he says he now feels free to breathe since the recount is over and the court has also declared his election by a majority of six. The following is the vote by precincts:

| Precinct | Clyburn | 1st | 2nd |
|--------------------------|---------|---------|-----|
| | | Count | |
| No. 7.—Shady | 8 | 9 | |
| No. 8.—Summerfield | 47 | 49 | |
| No. 9.—Lake Weir | 3 | 3 | |
| No. 21.—Bellevue | 27 | 29 | |
| No. 23.—Pedro | 27 | 27 | |
| No. 25.—Candler | 2 | 3 | |
| No. 28.—Levon | 20 | 24 | |
| | 137 | 146 | |
| | | Douglas | |
| No. 7.—Shady | 12 | 12 | |
| No. 8.—Summerfield | 3 | 2 | |
| No. 9.—Lake Weir | 24 | 24 | |
| No. 21.—Bellevue | 22 | 21 | |

| No. 25.—Candler | 18 | 19 | |
| No. 28.—Levon | 2 | 2 | |
| | 136 | 140 | |

And now after a breathless waiting he wishes to extend his thanks to even more voters than he at first thought and we feel this will stir him to his very best efforts to please all in this district, so we are expecting very good things at his hands and we feel that no one will have cause to regret the choice.
